

Clearances to work with children

Every state and territory in Australia has laws that require adults (and some children) who work or volunteer with children to hold one or more clearances. We recommend organising your clearance early in your course to prevent delays. Below is a summary of the clearances required for each jurisdiction.

Note: if you are under 18 years of age, you may still need a clearances – contact the relevant department in your state or territory for advice (or ask your school).
